1 DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Errico et al ('911).

Errico discloses a locking bone screw comprising:

- A threaded shaft 126;
- A rotational means 122;
- A cup 200 with,
 - A rotational means receiving area 205,
 - A transverse slot 206;
- A rod 205 passing through the slot 206;
- Means to fix the rod (Fig 9);
- Method of deploying fasteners with support cups (Col. 4, 5th paragraph and on);
- Deploying support rods (Col. 4, 5th paragraph and on);
- Rods abut the fasteners (fig 9); and
- Fixing both the rods and the fasteners (Col. 4, 5th paragraph and on).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3732

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1, 2, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Errico ('911) in view of Ross.

Errico lacks the use of a two separate thread patterns on the screw. Herbert teaches the use of two separate thread patterns with an offset crest that form establishes a compressive force. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide Errico with the two tread patterns as taught by Ross in order to keep the screw under tension while in the bone. This tension keeps the screw from moving (Col. 1, line 62).

Election/Restrictions

1. Newly submitted claims 8-11 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: The claims are not drawn to the same invention as originally claimed and would have been subject Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 8-11 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 3, 5, 6, and 7 are allowed.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reed ('778, '892, '315) discloses relevant art.

Art Unit: 3732

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
